

Levels of Organization Review

Name _____

Date _____

Period _____

Read each statement carefully and decide whether the statement is true or false. If the statement is false, cross off the words that make the statement false and insert the correct terms.

Example: A group of organisms working together for a common purpose is called a cell.	T or F
1. Homeostasis is the process by which an organism's external environment is kept stable in spite of changes in the internal environment.
2. Connective tissue connects parts together and provides support for you body.
3. Epithelial tissue is designed to allow electrical signals to travel through it to various places in the body.
4. A group of organs that do not work together create an organ system.
5. Cells that are similar, work together to form tissue.
6. The outermost layer of skin on your body is made of connective tissue.
7. Muscle tissue works by getting longer.
8. Nervous tissue directs and controls the process of moving.
9. Some of the delicate structures beneath your skin are protected by nervous tissue.

Rewrite the false sentences to make them true.
